Early Intervention and Thorough Investigation Are Guiding Principles

Vela works with policyholders to investigate claims early. The sooner our examiners get involved, the more likely it is that a timely resolution is achieved. We have established a reputable team of attorneys, adjusters, experts and other industry specialists to assist us in evaluating the issues and the roles of all parties involved so the parameters of the claim and its cause are clearly established. Our goal is to get all the facts, understand the circumstances and move toward resolution without disrupting the day-to-day business of your insureds.

Luminaries in Cost Control

The heart of our claims management practices is centered on litigation strategies that generate efficient resolution of construction, professional liability, products liability and general casualty claims. Our cost control methodology includes, but is not limited to:

- Legal expense reviews and audits
- Recovery services
- Vendor expense management

Vela's elite panel of defense counsel supports policyholders nationwide. These attorneys are selected for their experience and expertise in working within our industry niches. Their charter is to extricate your clients from lawsuits quickly and equitably.

Communication Helps Us Chart the Right Course

We know that successful claims handling is founded on regular exchange of information. To that end, we respond to a claims submission whether by phone, fax or email within 24 hours of its receipt and follow-up with a written acknowledgment to both you and your insured.

As the claim progresses, our claims professionals and counsel stay in contact with the policyholder to solicit input and report on case developments. Your client will always know what's happening with the case and why.

Vela has integrated in-house claims management into our operational model because it is the best way to support our policyholders, keep loss costs low, and provide the responsive service which our broker-partners rightfully demand.
